

Catch A Falling Star: A Hideaway Down Novel (Volume 2)

Catch A Falling Star. A Hideaway Down Novel (Book 2) Sometimes stars need help to shine. Laurel French is happy and why wouldn't she be? She's young, free and single; she owns The Coffee Hideaway, lives in the prettiest village in East Sussex and is surrounded by friends even if some of them are a little eccentric. What more could she want? Love? Not Laurel. Love is the last thing Laurel wants to think about because it's unrequited. Ned Stelling is in love with someone else. Jamie McDay is miserable. Hollywood has become a gilded cage. The paparazzi are snapping at his heels, and since he dumped his co-star girlfriend in a spectacularly stupid public display, he's been dropped from the Vampire series that made him a heart-throb, movie star. Visiting his friend, Gabriel Hardwick will cheer him up. Hideaway Down may be a bit twee but local stunner, Ivy Gilroy could definitely put a permanent smile on Jamie's face. That's if he can persuade her to dump her boyfriend, Ned.
