

The end of Aladdin of the Lamp finds the cunning Aladdin ruler of a great kingdom. Now, many years have passed. Aladdin is older, richer and wiser...and heart broken. After losing his beloved wife and son to foul play, he resigns from being king and sets out to do what he does best. Now working as an anonymous relic hunter, hes hired by a desperate noblewoman named Jewel to rescue her kidnapped son. Prince Zeyn, a powerful wizard from the magical land of Djinnland, has designs on Aladdins kingdom, and Jewels son is to be the final piece of a bloody plot to rule two worlds. To save the boy and his kingdom, Aladdin must journey to Djinnland, a magical land full of dragons and ogres, magic carpets and magic castles. It will take all his cunning and wits to stay alive...luckily, Aladdin has a few tricks up his sleeve.
