

Sacrifice: The Descendants #2

War has never been won and love has never been saved without Sacrifice. As the new Empress of the Ischero Empire, Cordelia fights for the safety of her divine disciples, including Victor, the only powerless demigod, from the threat of Hades? Apolluon. While Cordelia awaits her anointment from Zeus, she finds solace in her growing relationship with Evan and believes that everything is falling into place, until the Apolluon increase their attacks on the Ischero and the mortals of Nickel City, and the elders object to the mission to search for her parents, causing division in the empire. Just when Cordelia believes things can't get any worse, Victor vanishes, bringing about a new threat to end her union with Evan for good, and the mortals begin to suspect that the Ischero are nothing like them at all. Due to the growing persecution from the residents of the town, Cordelia decides that relocating is the answer. In the new city, just as the members of the empire begin to find peace, familiar faces begin to emerge and true identities are revealed. In order to guarantee her empires safety, Cordelia must decide between saving herself and making the ultimate sacrifice without any help from the gods.
