

Captured: Gowns & Crowns, Book 2 (Volume 2)

For beautiful, pampered Lauren Grant, the idea of love without strings is a fairy tale and a trap. Though she skillfully maintained her image as the carefree celeb, for years she has been systematically stalked by the richest and most ruthless golden boy of the Jet Set. To stay one step ahead, she has used every resource at her disposal. But now, stuck in Garronia with the whole world watching, she is finally cornered by her nemesis, with no way out. Well, no way out but one: the stubborn, forceful, impossibly gorgeous captain of the Garronia National Security Force, Dimitri Korba. The first man she has ever trusted which makes him the most dangerous man of all. Dimitri Korba's greatest duty is to keep those in his care safe. Since losing his closest friend, he has vowed that he will not fail another. Not even the haughty, foolhardy American blonde whom he can't get out of his mind. And once Dimitri glimpses the terror Lauren hides behind her icy perfect facade, protecting her becomes his only goal. Dimitri has no idea how far his commitment will take him, however, nor how powerful his need for Lauren will flare when she is not only in his care, but in his arms. With each stolen moment, the danger around them intensifies, burning away every doubt until all that remains is their fierce, unexpected passion. But will that be enough to save them?
