

Samuel Davenport runs his familys New York based advertising agency. His brother, Adam, runs from responsibility and anything remotely boring. And his temp, Haley, runs so shell never be caught and hurt again. She moved to the city New Years Day to hide and recover, to build a new life far from her past. In an effort to lie low, Haley never expects to be more than a temp. What begins for Sam as an excuse to get to know her better, ends up being an opportunity for advancement and excitement for Haley. When Sam tries to uncover all of Haleys mysteries, he exposes her hiding place, endangers her life, and threatens to destroy any chance of them ever having a future together.
