

Remember the Morning (The Stapleton Novels)

Catalyntie is a Dutch woman living in pre-Revolutionary America, struggling to come to terms with the conflicts created by growing up captive in a Seneca Indian village. She shared her captivity with Clara Flowers, an extraordinarily gifted black woman who remains deeply involved in her life. They also share a love for the same man, a brooding giant who, with their help, will slowly discover his American identity.

Sixth in the generational saga of the Stapleton family (Liberty Tavern, etc.), this sad, intricately plotted book takes readers back in time to colonial New York. Set in pre-Revolutionary America, Remember the Morning tells the story of Catalyntie, the first in a long line of strong-minded women in the Stapleton lineage. Remember the Morning [Thomas Fleming] on . Is Over: A Novel of the Civil War (The Stapleton Novels) by Thomas Fleming Hardcover $16.97.
