

Part two of The Society of Sinners Serving drinks in a questionably clean bar isn't how Cherish pictured her life would turn out, but when an attack by a vampire leaves her cursed to live in the dark, she doesn't have many job opportunities available to her. Living as a taint means living in hiding, and Jackson Station seems like just the place. It's high in the mountains and no one ever comes there. That is until Jazz Anderson shows up. His mysterious lifestyle and hot glances catch Cherish's eye, but considering her affliction, she never dreams she could have him. However, Jazz has a few secrets that will make hers seem downright mortal in comparison.
