

Were Chronicles: Vol 5

Pack Balance She must learn to balance her human nature with his wolf. Julie Sullivan made a horrible mistake. She left the man she loved when she learned about his shifter abilities. Now she's back in Clear Creek and she is determined to win him back. Cooper Grainger is working hard trying to find the people responsible for the illegal drug that is killing the shifters of his city. He's closing in on his suspect when he runs into the one woman who can bring him to his knees. But just when Julie and Cooper finally come together to try to get back the time they lost, Cooper's enemies strike. Cooper must trust his friends and family to keep the woman he loves safe. Julie must accept Cooper as his true self-half man and half wolf. Will they succeed or will evil prevail?

Pack Investigator It's not only the houses burning in Clear Creek. Lily Harper is setting Garrett Sullivan's heart on fire. Garrett Sullivan, a firefighter for the city of Clear Creek, has his hands full when he rescues a young boy from a burning house. The kid, Nick, is a shifter and in need of help, so Garrett takes it upon himself to make sure the boy is safe. From the first look at the boy's social worker, Garrett knows his life will never be the same again. Her enticing eyes and bright mind call to everything inside him. With Garrett a key member of the investigation team looking into a spate of fires in the neighborhood, he's put right into the action. When the boy's father is kidnapped, the intensity escalates. Lily Harper loves her job as a social worker in Clear Creek. When she's assigned the case of Nick, his big, wounded eyes tug at her heart. The strong firefighter who stands by his side tugs at something else. Garrett is everything she has been searching for in a partner. But with a difficult investigation involving kidnapping, arson and mystery, Lily worries that she'll lose Garrett before he can actually be hers. It will take the entire city, their friends and family to solve the latest threat to the shifters and their human lovers. Pack Law Its the case that will change everything for shifters. Mike Riley likes his small-town life and his job as an attorney in Clear Creek. When hes asked by his Alpha to take on a case involving a shifter that has been fired for no reason other than for being who he is, Mike has no idea how big the case will become or how much it will affect every shifter around the world. Shelby Holt is a reporter on the upswing of her career, and has secretly been sleeping with Mike for the last several months. As her feelings for the wolf shifter grow, she pushes them down, knowing he doesnt fit in with the image she wants to show to the public. She can no longer avoid him and her growing feelings, as the case Mike is working on collides with her career. When friends from the past join the wolf shifters in Clear Creek, Mike realizes how important the outcome of the trial truly is, and Shelby begins to crave the same fierce love she sees in their friends relationships.
